COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course extends the range of analytic, reading, writing, oral communication, and thinking skills that students need for success in secondary school academic programs. Students will study and interpret challenging texts from contemporary and historical periods, including novels, poems, plays, and opinion pieces, and will analyze and create effective media works. An important focus will be the thoughtful use of spoken and written language.

LISTED IN ORDER OF INSTRUCTIONAL DELIVERY
STRAND / UNIT TITLES	HOURS	OVERALL EXPECTATIONS / UNIT DESCRIPTION
INDEPENDENT READING UNIT AND MYTHOLOGY	20	As the first unit, the examination of an independently chosen novel lays the foundation of the course. Students will read and demonstrate their understanding of fiction, through discussion and reflection that will foster their personal growth. Learning will be enriched by the inclusion of mythology. This unit will include effective essay writing and an introduction to the writing process. Students will demonstrate their understanding through personal reflection, daily participation, class discussions, creative writing, analytical writing, daily reading and group work.
THE NOVEL – TO KILL A MOCKINGBIRD	25	In this unit, students will be given the opportunity to examine the novel critically within the context of their own lives by exploring values and related issues in the novel. The teacher will assist the student by providing activities that facilitate this exploration through group discussion, debate, presentations, journal writing and creative extension activities. The exploration will permit the students to examine their own lives in light of Gospel values.
SHAKESPEAREAN DRAMA – ROMEO AND JULIET	30	Students will expand and apply the skills learned thus far, through the study of drama. The students will interpret the elements of dramatic structure, character and characterization, theme, setting, and dramatic devices. They will learn about the context (social, cultural, and political) in which the literary work was created, and apply this knowledge to their study of the dramatic text. Students will demonstrate their understanding through reading, discussing, and analyzing the text, as well as through various creative activities (dramatic presentation, creative writing, and visual representations of major themes and symbols). When possible, the teachers will arrange a field trip to see a theatrical production.

POETRY	10	This unit introduces students to the figurative elements of poetry. Students will demonstrate their understanding through personal reflection, daily participation, class discussions, creative writing and analytical writing. The exploration will permit the students to examine issues from their own lives as well as the wider world in light of Gospel values.
INDEPENDENT STUDY	15	The Independent Study Project is a Culminating Activity that reinforces the skills and knowledge learned throughout the Grade 9 English course. Students will select a topic based on the time period when either Romeo and Juliet or To Kill a Mockingbird were written, and write a research based editorial article about their selected topic. They will accompany their article with an annotated list of the sources they consulted in their work.
LITERACY PREPARATION	10	This unit is integrated throughout the course. Students will practice literacy skills and prepare for the Grade 10 Test of Reading and Writing by completing activities in a workbook specifically designed to enhance student success on the test.

POLICIES & PROCEDURES
ATTENDANCE AND STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Good attendance is essential for success. Absenteeism, for any reason, adversely affects a student's learning. ❖ Students are responsible for maintaining a neat and up-to-date notebook in a three-ringed binder that is organized in sections. This will be used as an aid for tests, assignments and examinations. ❖ Students are expected to make a positive contribution to both class discussions and group activities in order to enhance their learning. ❖ Homework is an important and necessary part of the learning process and MUST be completed on a regular basis. ❖ Students who are absent are responsible for acquiring any notes, handouts, assignments or due dates distributed during an absence. ❖ Students who are absent for a presentation or test must submit a parental note on the day of their return to class. ❖ Students must be prepared to complete the missed assignment/test of the day of return. ❖ Rescheduling of any missed conferences is at the discretion of the teacher. ❖ Additional assistance is available on request or at the insistence of the teacher.
LATE POLICIES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ The English Department will follow the Bishop Allen Late Assignment Policy as outlined in the student agenda. ❖ No assignment will be accepted once the class set has been graded and returned.
PROCESS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Process marks for all assignments are given for the quality of the process. ❖ Any assignment submitted without process work will not be graded until the process work is submitted. ❖ Process work is to be submitted with the assignment on the due date. ❖ A second, printed copy of an assignment is not considered rough work – hand editing must be evident. ❖ Highlighted, pre-printed notes are not considered rough work. ❖ For assignments with mandatory conferences, an incomplete conference will be recorded as such in the process marks for the assignment.
ACADEMIC DISHONESTY	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Plagiarism is a serious academic offence that will result in a mark of zero for the assignment. ❖ Any primary or secondary source material that is not documented correctly can be interpreted as plagiarism. This includes portions of or entire essays downloaded from the Internet, a sentence that is too close to the original source and not put in quotations, paraphrased material that is not documented, and submission of another student's work as one's own. ❖ Students are expected to adhere to the MLA system of referencing. ❖ The onus is on the student to prove that a questionable assignment is, in fact, his/her own and proper process work aids in eliminating doubt. ❖ Students who are unfamiliar with the rules against plagiarism should consult their teacher or the Teacher-Librarian.
RECORD KEEPING	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Students might be asked to submit an electronic copy of their formal assignments. These are to be kept on file in the English Department.
TEXTBOOKS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Students are expected to return books in the condition in which they were distributed. The student must pay for any lost or damaged books.
PARENT-TEACHER CONTACTS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Parent-Teacher Interviews take place in November and April. ❖ Telephone contacts with parents will be made as required.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ For further information on Policies and Procedures, refer to the Bishop Allen Academy Student Agenda.
