ADVANCED PLACEMENT ENGLISH – GRADE 10

Note how different the book covers are. Who are the characters in the pictures? What do they have in common?

What is the central event in Macbeth according to each book cover?

Identify the act and scene represented in each picture. Using direct evidence from the text of the play, explain the interpretation presented by each picture. Which one presents the more compelling and cogent interpretation of a major theme of the play as a whole?

Can we judge a book by its cover? Apply this old proverb to the covers. Which cover do you prefer? If you were to walk into a bookstore and had to choose between the books (at the same price), which one would you buy? Why?

Present your answers to the questions in a series of paragraphs formatted in an MLA style.
